

How to Strengthen Urban Spatial Planning to Reduce Social Vulnerability and Exclusions in South Cities

11th April 2014 Friday

8:30 - 11:30 am

RED PAVILION - Room Number – 19

by

CEPT University, Ahmedabad, India and Cities Development Initiatives for Asia (CDIA), Manila, Philippines

for

WORLD URBAN FORUM – 7, MEDELLIN, COLOMBIA

CITY DEVELOPMENT PLAN
COMMUNITIES AND RESIDENTS
DISASTERS
CONNECTIVITY
WOMEN AND KIDS
PARTICIPATORY PROCESS
ACCESS TO BASIC SERVICES
AWARENESS
GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT
SUCCESSFUL IMPLEMENTATION

Join Us!

“INCLUSIVE PLANNING AND LAND DISTRIBUTION”

TARGET AUDIENCE

- Regional/Local Government And Municipality
- Academia/Research Organizations
- Intergovernmental Organization
- National Government
- Individuals and Civil Society Organization
- Private Sector

Conceptualization and Delivery Partner
International Center for Sustainable Cities

8:30 to 8:45

Introductions

8:45 to 9:00

“Know your city’ s vulnerability”

9:00 to 9:15

Issues of social vulnerability and Exclusions in Asian Cities

9:15 to 9:30

Case studies and best practices of “good spatial planning” and “Innovative mechanisms to address social vulnerability and exclusion

9:30 to 9:45

Introduction to group exercise – “ Inclusive City”

9:45 to 10:45

Group Exercise and Role Play : How “ everyone together” help achieve inclusive development for “ Hollywood” neighbourhood

10:45 to 11:15

Group Presentations and open discussion

11:15 to 11:30

Concluding Session